

64. Handbags and Gladraggs

Rod Stewart or The Stereophonics

[C] / [Bb] / [F] / [G] / [C] /
[Bb] / [F] / [G] / [C] / / /

[C] Ever see a [Bb] blind man cross the [F] road,
[G] Tryin' to reach the other [C] side? [C] [Bb] / [F] / [G] /
[C] Ever see a [Bb] young girl growin' [F] old,
[G] Tryin' to make herself a [C] bride? [C] [Bb] / [F] / [G] /

[Am] So what becomes of [G] you my love? [C] /
[C] When they've finally [D] stripped you of,
[F] The handbags and the gladraggs
That your [G] poor old granddad had to sweat to [C] buy you. [Bb] / [F] / [G] / [C] /

[Bb] / [F] / [G] / [C] / / /

[C] Once I was a [Bb] young man, [F] /
And all I thought I [G] had to do was [C] smile. [C] [Bb] / [F] / [G] /
[C] Well you are still a [Bb] young girl, [F] /
And you've [G] bought everything in [C] sight. [C] [Bb] / [F] / [G] /

[Am] So once you think you're [G] in, you're out. [C] /
[C] 'Cos you don't mean a [D] single thing without.
[F] The handbags and the gladraggs,
That your [G] poor old granddad had to sweat to [C] buy you. [Bb] / [F] / [G] / [C] /

[Bb] / [F] / [G] / [C] / / /

[C] Sing a song of [Bb] sixpence for your [F] sake,
And take a [G] bottle full of [C] rye. [C] [Bb] / [F] / [G] /
[C] Four and twenty [Bb] blackbirds in a [F] cake,
And [G] bake them all in a [C] pie. [C] [Bb] / [F] / [G] /

[Am] They told me you missed [G] school today, [C] /
[C] So what I suggest you just [D] throw them all away,
[F] The handbags and the gladraggs,
That your [G] poor old granddad had to sweat to [C] buy you. [Bb] / [F] / [G] / [Am] /

[Am] They told me you missed [G] school today, [C] /
[C] So what I suggest you just [D] throw them all away,
[F] The handbags and the gladraggs,
That your [G] poor old granddad had to sweat to [C] buy you. [Bb] / [F] / [G] / [C] / / /

[Bb] / [F] / [G] / [C] / / /