

70. Della and the Dealer

Hoyt Axton

It was [D] Della and the Dealer and a dog named Jake and a [G] cat named Kalamazoo
[F] Left the city in a [Bb] pick-up truck. [G] Gonna make some dreams come [D] true
[D] Well they rolled out west where the wild sun sets and the [G] coyote bays at the moon
[F] Della and the Dealer and a [Bb] dog named Jake and a [G] cat named Kalama[D]zoo

If that [D] cat could talk what tales he'd tell
About [A] Della and the Dealer and the dog as well
But the [A7] cat was cool
And he never said a mumblin' [D] word

Down [D] Tucson way there's an old cafe where they [G] play a little cowboy tune
The [F] guitar picker was a [Bb] friend of mine by the [G] name of Randy [D] Boone
Well [D] Randy played her a sweet love song and [G] Della got a fire in her eye
The [F] Dealer had a knife and the [Bb] dog had a gun and the [G] cat had a shot of [D] rye

If that [D] cat could talk what tales he'd tell
About [A] Della and the Dealer and the dog as well
But the [A7] cat was cool
And he never said a mumblin' [D] word

Well the [D] Dealer was a killer; he was evil and mean and he was [G] jealous of the fire in her eyes
He [F] snorted his coke through a [Bb] century note and he [G] swore that Boone would [D] die
And the [D] stage was set when the lights went out there was [G] death in Tucson town
Two [F] shadows ran for the [Bb] bar back door, but [G] one stayed on the [D] ground

If that [D] cat could talk what tales he'd tell
About [A] Della and the Dealer and the dog as well
But the [A7] cat was cool
And he never said a mumblin' [D] word

Two [D] shadows ran from the bar that night and a [G] dog and a cat ran too
The [F] tires got hot on the [Bb] pickup truck, as [G] down the road they [D] flew
It was [D] Della and her lover and a dog named Jake and a [G] cat named Kalamazoo
[F] Left Tucson in a [Bb] pickup truck. [G] Gonna make some dreams come [D] true

If that [D] cat could talk what tales he'd tell
About [A] Della and the Dealer and the dog as well
But the [A7] cat was cool
And he never said a mumblin' [D] word

If that [D] cat could talk what tales he'd tell
About [A] Della and the Dealer and the dog as well
But the [A7] cat was cool
And he never said a mumblin' [D] word
But the [A7] cat was cool
And he never said a mumblin' [D] word
