

133. I Dug Up a Diamond

Mark Knopfler and Emmylou Harris

Slow and steady - it's pretty dark down in that mine! No gaps between the verses or bridge

[Am] I dug up a [G] diamond,
[G] Rare and [Am] fine,
[Am] I dug up a [G] diamond
[G] In a deep dark [Am] mine.
[Am] If only I could [G] cling to [G] My beautiful [Am] find,
[Am] I dug up a [G] diamond
[G] In a deep dark [Am] mine.

[Am] My gem is [G] special,
[G] Beyond all [Am] worth,
[Am] As strong as any [G] metal
[G] Or stone in the [Am] earth,
[Am] Sharp as any [G] razor
[G] Or blade you can [Am] buy,
[Am] Bright as any [G] laser
[G] Or any star in the [Am] sky.

[Am] Maybe once in a [F] lifetime
[F] You'll hold one in your [C] hand,
[C] Once in a [G] lifetime
[G] In this [Am] land,
[Am] Where the journey [F] ends
[F] In a worthless [C] claim,
[C] Time and a [G] gain
[G] In the mining [Am] game.

Hum an instrumental verse then repeat the bridge

[Am] I dug up a [G] diamond,
[G] Rare and [Am] fine,
[Am] I dug up a [G] diamond
[G] In a deep dark [Am] mine.
[Am] Down in the [G] darkness
[G] In the dirt and the [Am] grime,
[getting slower] [Am] I dug up a [G] diamond
[G] In a deep dark [Am] mine.
