Intro: [G]

[G] I'm praying for [C] rain in Cali[G]fornia
So the grapes can grow and they can make more [D7] wine
And I'm [G] sitting in a [C] honky in Chi[G]cago
With a broken heart and a [D7] woman on my [G] mind

I ask the [D7] man behind the bar for the [G] juke box
And the music takes me back to Tennes[D7]see
When they [G] ask who the [C] fool is in the [G] corner, [C] crying
I say [G] little old [D7] wine drinker [G] me

I came here last [C] week from down in [G] Nashville
'Cause my baby left for Florida on a [D7] train
I [G] thought I'd get a [C] job and just [G] forget her
But in Chicago a broken [D7] heart is still the [G] same

I ask the [D7] man behind the bar for the [G] juke box
And the music takes me back to Tennes[D7]see
When they [G] ask who the [C] fool is in the [G] corner, [C] crying
I say [G] little old [D7] wine drinker [G] me

I ask the [D7] man behind the bar for the [G] juke box
And the music takes me back to Tennes[D7]see
When they [G] ask who the [C] fool is in the [G] corner, [C] crying
I say [G] little old [D7] wine drinker [G] me

I say [G] little old [D7] wine drinker [G] me
